To Improve Food Service

Atlanta, Ga.—Further to improve food service in the Army a new category of thoroughly trained staff officers whose chief duty will be supervision and direction of the food program, has been established at all Army levels, the War Department has announced in the Third Army Area through Headquarters, Seventh Army.

Special food officers, to be known as "Food Service Supervisors" will be assigned to Army commanders at all echelons from battalion to overseas theaters and will range in rank from lieutenant to lieutenant colonel.

Simultaneously, a new class of enlisted food service supervisory personnel to be known as "Food Service Technicians" and ranging in rank from corporal to master sergeant has been established to assist the officers. The new categories of food officers and enlisted personnel will not increase the authorized basic troop strengths.

Their objective is to improve the standards of the Army's subsistence program as recommended by a nine-man committee of civilian experts who at the request of the Secretary of War examined the Army food service for the War Department. These civilian food experts visited Army camps in all parts of the world and inspected more than 250 Army messes.

Brings Message at Night Watch Service

Chaplain H. W. Arthur brought the inspirational message at the night watch service held at the Methodist church on New Year's Eve from 11:15 to 12:05 with the Methodist, Baptist and Episcopal churches participating.

Chaplain Arthur's theme was with Christ at the Helm in '47 and he gave his hearers much to consider during the years ahead.

The worship service was opened with scripture reading and prayer by Rev. P. E. Pierce followed by the singing of "O, God Our Help in Ages Past." The invocation was given by Rev. John T. Dearing.

There were several recordings of sacred songs and one of which was the chimes playing, "Lead on O, Christ Eternal." Rev. P. E. Pierce gave the benediction.

A social hour was held from 10:30 to 11:15 when refreshments were served. The committee in charge of this were Mrs. A. C. Enclinos, Mrs. M. T. Neacase and Mrs. J. R. Shadon. During this hour chimes and hymns were heard from the Tower of the church.

Frozen Whole Milk

Atlanta, Ga., Jan. 2.—Frozen whole milk is taking the place of the powdered milk which was a grip during the war at hospitals in Japan and other American bases in the Pacific it has been announced at Headquarters Seventh Army.

Fresh nonsterilized pasteurized milk is frozen at temperatures of 15 degrees or less and shipped under refrigeration in one-quart containers, the announcement said. Hospital patients in the Pacific area are receiving a quart of milk thus handled a day, while each soldier in the regular messes receives a half-pint.

Dry skim milk having all the food value of fresh milk with the exception of fat and Vitamin A, has been used by the Army in beverages, soups, gravies, sauces and custards by reconstituting it with the proper amount of water. However, it is pointed out, in the case of hospital patients who cannot be fed the regular menu and whose appetites must be tempted by palatability, reconstituted dried milk was not satisfactory because of its lack of flavor appeal.

Frozen milk was first tried in 1944 on American hospital ships returning from war theaters with wounded aboard was an immediate success.

In Europe fresh milk is being procured from Denmark for hospital patients and soldiers in the American zone of occupation.

Initial Training Plan For National Guard Completed

Colonel John O. Stagg, Acting Adjutant General of Mississippi, announces that the National Guard Bureau has completed plans for the first two years of the training program. The two-year training project will be put into operation by Mississippi National Guard units upon reaching the required percentage of authorized officer and enlisted strength.

The outline for National Guard training includes detailed instruction for individual Guardsmen and units on a company level during the first and second years after activation. A special course of instruction has been drawn up for each type of unit, with special emphasis on utilization of World War II developments, during the initial two-year plan.

Other plans to be announced later, will deal with training on a battalion level during the third and fourth years, on a regimental combat team and combat command level during the fifth year and division level during the sixth year.

Troop schools will be conducted during the armory period. The time required for a National Guardsman to discharge his duties and take advantage of the training offered is slight, consisting of a two-hour evening drill period each week, or around 96 hours per year, and fifteen days summer encampment each year. Pay allowances are generous enough to be of real value in supplementing the citizen-soldier's civilian earnings.

ORTTE THEATER SUNDAY - MONDAY "TWO SMART PEOPLE"

The spectacular New Orleans Mardi Gras sequence which climaxes the new dramatic romance, "Two Smart People," starring Lucille Ball and John Hodiak on the Ortte, screen required one of the largest sound stages on the Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer lot.

An authentic reproduction of a section of New Orleans' famous French Quarter, with its cobbled streets, century-old houses and wrought-iron balconies was reconstructed on Lot Two, under the supervision of Art Directors Cedric Gibbon and Wade Rutetam.

No sooner were the elaborate street sets completed, than they were filled with a milling crowd of laughing and shouting masqueraders, typical of the roistering crowds that descend upon New Orleans during its colorful Mardi Gras celebrations.

More than 800 carnival celebrants participated in this episode, with the wardrobe department overworked to find and create enough costumes to go around.

Miss Ball, Hodiak, Lloyd Nolan and Elisha Cook, Jr., are the principals of a desperate chase and gun fight which comes as dramatic climax in the midst of the carnival.

Veau Chapter No. 10 of Disabled American Veterans and Military services were held at the Young Mortuary Parlors in New Orleans, on Friday, December 27 at 7 p. m. the Rev. A. P. - 1 The amount of money Paid Out to provide telephone service is increasing faster than the amount Taken In.
- 2 Telephone earnings are the lowest in our history.
- 3 Reasonable telephone earnings are essential to good telephone service.

Your Telephone Company is doing the largest volume of business in its history, yet telephone earnings continue to decline.

The reason is perfectly clear. Your telephone rate has remained the same for many years while the costs of furnishing you telephone service have increased. Wages, telephone materials, building costs, services, all have been going up so fast that—the amount of money Paid Out to provide service is increasing faster than the amount Taken In. Actually telephone earnings today are the lowest in our history!

As every business man knows, good service depends on reasonable earnings. That is basic. To render good telephone service and to continually improve and expand it, reasonable telephone earnings are essential.

Our public duty demands that we report these facts to you.

How women and girls
may get wanted relief from functional periodic pain

Cardui, many women say, has brought relief from the cramp-like aches and nervous strain of functional periodic distress. Taken like a tonic, it should stimulate appetite, aid digestion, thus help build resistance for the "time" to come. Started 3 days before "your time", it should help relieve pain due to purely functional periodic causes. Try it!

Selling the Gulf South to Industry

Every family in your community benefits when a new business opens there. Every new industry means more jobs for local workers, more tax revenues for the town and state, more money in circulation for everybody to share.

To encourage the movement of industry to this area, United Gas Pipe Line Company launched an extensive national advertising campaign more than seven years ago to proclaim the advantages of the "Gulf South" for industry...selling its raw materials, its friendly labor, its markets, its transport, its fuel.

This month United Gas ran its 100th advertisement directed to the big men of industry, in such publications as TIME, BUSINESS WEEK, MANUFACTURERS RECORD and WALL STREET JOURNAL. Our purpose? To build prosperity for all the people of the five-state area we serve...for anything that benefits our customers; benefits us; anything that benefits us benefits our customers.
